Next Meeting May 04, 2005

Please note that our meeting will be starting at 7:00 p.m. instead of 6:30 p.m. on May 04, 2005.

At our last meeting on April 20, we did some video taping for the members. Once the editing is complete, the video will be posted on the website for viewing.

There will be one mini seminar this time. This way, we can give the speaker more time to deliver adequate information on the topic.

May 4, 2005 Speakers
